LABOR BILL UP FOR ACTION BY SENATE TODAY

Solons Take Turn After Rock-Crushes Passage Vote by House.

BULLETIN

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 5—Three Democratic house members appealed to President Truman today to veto the compromise labor bill and reported they got a reply that he is going to study the measure very thoroughly before acting.

* * *

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 5—Senators step up today for their turn at approving the compromise labor bill that rode a rock-crusher vote to passage in the house.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said was a chance the senate ballot might go over until tomorrow. It depends, he said, on how many people want to speak how long.

Once the vote comes, the bill goes to the White House, where some key Democrats expect a veto.

There is no doubt about senate passage. The only question is whether the vote will turn up a margin indicating that congress will veto a veto. That takes a two-to-one majority in both branches

4 to 1 in House

The house score late yesterday was better than four to one—320 to 79. Chairman Hartley (R-NJ) of the house labor committee grinned to a reporter:

"I told you so!"

Taft, who heads the senate labor committee, stuck by a prediction that the bill will become law regardless of a veto. Senator Ball (R-Minn) said he also is confident the senate will reject a veto, if one comes.

But Senator Pepper (D-Fla) told a reporter it will be "very close" on that issue. He said he looks for some Democrats to switch over to supporting President Truman "on the basis of a strong veto message, the logic of which would be persuasive."

Overrider Certain in House

Such a message also might pull away some of those who voted in the house for the labor bill. But even the Democratic leadership there says a veto will be overridden.

At yesterday's nose counting, Democrats backed the compromise 103 to 66, Republicans 217 to 12. The one American-Laborite, Rep. Marcantonio of New York, was against the bill.

The final 320 to 79 tally compares with the 308-to-107 vote by which the house passed its own labor bill in mid-April.

The compromise, blending together the original house bill and another approved by the senate, 68 to 24, among other things would:

Ban some kinds of strikes entirely and give the government authority to use court orders to stop "national paralysis" strikes, as in the coal or steel industry, during 80 days of mediation.

Forbid the closed shop, which compels an employer to hire only union workers.

Allow law suits against unions for breaking contracts.

Bar unions from keeping nonstrikers off the job by mass or or violent picketing.

Deny collective bargaining rights to unions if any official can "reasonably be regarded" as a Communist or sympathizer.

REJECT TREATY PROPOSAL

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 5—The senate today rejected a proposal to postpone action on the peace treaties with Italy, Romania, Bulgaria and Hungary, clearing the way for an immediate vote on their ratification.

Truman Blasts Taft As "Dangerous Economist"

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 5—President Truman said today that Senator Taft (R-Ohio) has advocated "fallacious and dangerous" procedure on the economic front.

Mr. Truman made this statement at a news conference at which he announced the appointment of former governor Dwight T. Griswold of Nebraska to be chief of the United States mission to Greece under the $400,000,000 Greek-Turkish aid bill.

At the same time, he appointed Richard F. Allen to administer the $350,000,000 relief program for other European countries.

In a lengthy prepared statement, Mr. Truman took issue with Taft's recent statement that "apparently the President and the administration are abandoning talk of keeping prices down in favor of heavy spending abroad that will keep them up."

Prices Not Involved

Reading his statement rapidly, the President said bluntly the administration does not advocate the Greek Turkish aid program "for the purpose of bringing prices down," but to aid starving millions restore their economies and to bulwark them "against totalitarian aggression."

While foreign aid programs place some strain upon the American economy, he said, the answer is to make price reductions at home "even more urgent."

Mr. Truman said:

"Senator Taft's argument that high demand justifies or necessitates high prices is fallacious and dangerous. It is based upon the idea that prices should seek as high a level as the traffic will bear rather than the lowest level that is consistent with fair profits.

"Practice Indefensible"

"That kind of practice is indefensible, and in the long run it would destroy both prosperity and profits."

Mr. Truman said that Taft contended the only way to bring prices down was to reduce the demand for goods.

Mr. Truman said:

"If the government were to abandon its vitally necessary loan and expenditure programs, if wages were reduced, if savings were exhausted, and if unemployment set in, then there would be less demand and prices would drop.

"Senator Taft would call this an adjustment. I would call it a tragic recession or depression. There is nothing novel and nothing worthy about getting a price collapse through reducing the demand. That is the typical road to a depression."

"Taft Boom and Bust"

The President said Taft's economic philosophy "follows the old idea of boom and bust." For his own part, Mr. Truman added, "I utterly reject this defeatist economic philosophy," believing "in maintaining a full employment, full production economy."

His own interest in voluntary price reductions "is undiminished," Mr. Truman said, adding "the drive for voluntary price reductions, while it has not gone far enough, has already yielded substantial results."

The President said peaceful wage adjustments in some major industries took place without price advances and that in recent months the trend toward extraordinary price increases "has been checked and moderate price declines have taken place."

Lays Stress on Statement

The President laid great stress on his statement replying to statements attributed to Taft, chairman of the senate Republican policy committee.

A newsman wanted to know why he had singled out Taft, who has been frequently mentioned as a Republican presidential possibility.

Mr. Truman replied that Taft has made a statement that won't hold water. He called Taft the spokesman for the economic philosophy that Mr. Truman is attacking.

Mr. Truman said Taft has stated that loans to other countries for the purchase of American goods "increase the exports from our ports and force prices up."

Saying these purchases [illegible] on the American economy, particularly in the second half, Mr. Truman declared:

"The fact is that [illegible]

UTILITIES STILL OUT AT FLOOD-HIT TOWN

By The Associated Press

RUTLAND, Vt., June 5—Emergency crews worked desperately today to restore gas and water facilities to this flood-battered Green mountain community of 18,000.

The first major step in rehabilitation was taken last night when electric power, ruptured for 24 hours, reached the city through auxiliary feeder lines.

The utility services were wrecked when a nine-foot wall of water, released by smashing of a power dam, poured into wide sections of the city Tuesday night. Torrential 24-hour rains preceded the break.

Authorities estimated it would be two or three weeks before normal gas service was restored, but city officials hoped to establish a water connection today for sanitary purposes.

DECLARES RED COUP OUTRAGE

Tells Newsmen America Won't Stand Idly By as Russ Take Over.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 5—President Truman today denounced the Communist coup in Hungary as an outrage and asserted that the United States does not intend to stand idly by in that situation.

He told a news conference the state department right now is looking into the whole Hungarian affair.

A reporter said it has been suggested the United States is sometimes in the position of shaking its fist at Hungary and sometimes just shaking its finger. He inquired whether the United States intended to do something in the present situation and Mr. Truman replied that it does not intend to stand idly by.

"Situation Terrible"

In response to another inquiry he said the Hungarian situation is terrible and reiterated the state department is making a full investigation.

Diplomatic authorities are speculating whether the Hungarian coup may be followed by steps to set up a Balkan federation of Soviet-dominated states in eastern and southern Europe.

Until last week, Hungary's non-Communist government was the sole break in an otherwise solid lineup of Moscow-controlled nations extending from the Baltic to the Adriatic seas.

Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia has been an outspoken advocate of a formal Balkan federation, and such a development now is being viewed here as a definite possibility.

Reply to America

Like the Hungarian overturn, it would be regarded as (1) a curt Moscow rejoinder to the American program of aid to Greece and Turkey and (2) a move to solidify the Soviet bloc before final ratification of the satellite peace treaties forces withdrawal of Red Army occupation forces.

Diplomats also consider as a possible next Russian step in eastern Europe some action to perpetuate the Communist-domination of Czechoslovakia. A leftist bloc which included Communists won last year's elections there, but a more recent rightist trend has suggested that the Communists might slip back to second or third place in the next national balloting.

Meanwhile, a formal United States protest and further economic slaps remained under consideration at the state department to express this government's concern over the Communist seizure of control in Hungary.

That country's minister to Washington, Aladar Szegedy-Maszak, used undiplomatic terms to denounce "the Soviets and their agents" in announcing yesterday that he and most of his staff will not "recognize" the new Budapest regime.

MINE BLAST LAID TO ILL-USED EXPLOSIVES

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 5 — A senate public lands subcommittee declared today "use of explosives in a non-permissible manner" was the immediate cause of the March 25 Centralia (Ill.) mine disaster which claimed 111 lives.

Submitting a report to the senate on an investigation it made, the committee said:

"In summing up the responsibility, committee members found that almost everyone concerned was guilty of negligence to one degree or another—management, the miners, the mine workers' union, state bureaus and federal bureaus."

Chairman Cordon (R-Ore) told the senate the committee recommends federal legislation giving the U. S. bureau of mines or some other federal agency "authority, not only to promulgate an adequate safety code, but also authority to enforce it."

9 ESCAPE LANCASTER INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

By The Associated Press

LANCASTER, O., June 5—Nine boys escaped from the Boys' Industrial school here last night by slipping away from the playground during the evening recreational period.

Two, Carl Howard, 14, of Cleveland, and Robert Bushner, 16, of Akron, were caught within a few hours. Supt. Harold L. Hays reported to the state welfare department in Columbus.

The seven others being sought by state highway patrolmen and Fairfield county officers today were listed by Hays as:

Ramond Lenons, 15, of Akron; Thomas Kerr, 16, of Toledo; Robert Jenkins, 19, of Columbus; Lester Barber, 16, of Cleveland; Louis Sanders, 16, of Genoa; Richard Weaver, 16, of St. Marys; and Robert Ratcliff, 16, of Dayton.

Hays told the welfare department that Howard and Bushner ran off about 8 p. m., 45 minutes after the other seven.

KENTON, O., June 5—Arraignment of Roger "Tug" Williams, 38, of New Hampshire, O., originally scheduled for this morning before Common Pleas Judge Elmer Godwin on a first degree murder charge has been postponed until Saturday. The Logan county grand jury returned the indictment late Tuesday afternoon in the fatal shooting of Mrs. Minta Webb Rathwell, 28, of Kenton.

Williams was taken into custody by Logan county authorities following the slaying of the Turkey Foot park waitress at the Lester Newland grocery-restaurant after she allegedly refused to give him a date on May 28.

Mrs. Rathwell's mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Williams live in Kenton. The victim had been a resident of Kenton for the past few months and had been employed at the restaurant approximately three weeks before her death.

Legislators Begin 8-Day Sprint Toward June 14 Adjournment

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., June 5—Legislative leaders headed the 97th Ohio general assembly into an eight-day sprint today to complete work June 14.

Rushing to clear their desks, both houses scheduled an extra day's session tomorrow and planned six days of action next week.

The house docketed 18 bills for a vote today, including one to permit cities to condemn land for off-street automobile parking. At least 10 measures were on tap for tomorrow.

The senate took up 10 proposals, one of which would increase the state liquor control board from four to five members and hand the director's rule-making power to the board.

Agree on June 14

House and senate leaders agreed on quitting June 14, holding skeleton sessions June 15 to sign bills and adjourning sine die June 30.

The house finance committee last night recommended passage of the long-delayed capital improvements measures after cutting an original $81,568,616 appropriation to $64,681,771 to avoid a deficit.

Both houses approved a conference committee agreement to remove a house-sponsored extra cent-a-pack cigaret tax from the $300,000,000 veterans' bonus plan and allow payments to all ranks, including those above captain

The house vote was 92 to 30 and the senate 31 to 0.

The action completed legislative passage of the resolution which now must be approved by voters at the November election as a constitutional amendment before bonuses can be paid next year. It does not require signature by the governor.

$15 Per Month

Bonuses would be at the rate of $15 for each month of foreign service and $10 for domestic duty between Pearl Harbor and V-J day to a maximum of $600. Sea duty would be classified as foreign service.

Bonus "call bonds" would be retired by taking $12,000,000 annually from the state treasury and making up the difference by a real estate tax.

Grinding out more measures, the senate judiciary committee recommended passage of proposals to permit county and township zoning, increase contributions to police and firemen's pensions systems from 2 to 4 per cent, and permit labor unions and other organizations to be sued.

The senate passed and sent to the house a plan by Sen. Carl D. Sheppard (R-Summit) for congressional redistricting of the state in 1951 according to population based on the 1950 federal census.

Congressman-At-Large Out

Ohio now has 22 representatives and a congressman-at-large, who would be eliminated under the proposal. The vote of 19-11 was just enough for passage.

Other senate-passed bills would allow distribution of liquor permit funds to townships, permit county road emergency repairs to $1,000 without bids, and continue the Ohio small business commission.

A proposal also was approved to replace the state superintendent of insurance with a commissioner of insurance appointed by the governor, subject to senate approval which now is not required for that office.

Both houses accepted a separate conference committee recommendation for a flat $10 passenger automobile license and $5 for motorcycles. The committee eliminated a proposed $5 fee for motorbikes.

Increase Utility Salaries

Representatives completed passage of emergency bills to boost assessments on public utilities from $275,000 to $375,000 annually to increase salaries of three state public utilities commission members from $6,000 to $9,000 a year, and to terminate teacher contracts

Senate Ratifies Italian Treaty

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 5—The senate ratified today the peace treaty with Italy, first of agreements with World War II enemy states to win its approval.

The vote was 78 to 10.

Ratification by the necessary two-thirds majority came after the chamber had rejected, 67 to 22, a proposal by Senator Fulbright (D-Ark) to delay action on it and treaties with Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria until Jan. 25.

Approval of the Italian agreement cleared the way for speedy action on the other treaties.

The treaties become effective on ratification by all of the Big Four powers—the U. S., Britain, Russia and China.

Before the vote was taken, Senator McMahon (D-Conn) told his colleagues he is fearful that ratification will lay Italy open to Communist control and "Hungary's fate." The government in Hungary has been taken over by Communist, a move that President Truman denounced today as outrageous.

RESERVE OFFICERS HEAR O.S.U. COLONEL

Problems of Logistics Discussed at Monthly Meeting.

Colonel Robert R. Litehiser, F. A., chief engineer at the Ohio State laboratory, Ohio State university, Columbus, was a guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Marion Area chapter, Reserve Officers association, Tuesday night at Hotel Harding. His lecture on logistics of transportation and supply was illustrated with pictures. He explained how men and material were shipped to foreign shores for use by U. S. men.

During the business session it was decided to continue monthly meetings during the summer. They will be held on the first Tuesday of the month at 7 p. m. at Hotel Harding. Recruiting was encouraged by the members present and it was decided to appoint a committee to cooperate with the Marion recruiting office. It was announced that rooms had been rented for reserve activities and would be occupied by the following organizations: 812 Composite group commanded by Col. H. L. Taylor; Seventh Ohio batallion, commanded by Lt. Col. L. H. Larsen and Battalion C, 324th, commanded by Capt. Robert Wolbert.

Major Long, unit instructor at Fort Hayes, Columbus, announced that enlisted men with six months' service and in one of the first three grades and age bracket 21 to 28 years, may, if application is made before Dec. 31 this year, be commissioned in the Officers Reserve Corps. Also, it was announced, an enlisted man of any grade in the Enlisted Reserve Corps may go to Officers Candidate school and if successful in completing the course will be commissioned in the Officers Reserve Corps.

Washington Taking Its Place As Science Capital of World

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON, June 4—You may not have thought of it that way but Washington is the world's science capital.

This city is the center of great scientific activity although the noise of the politicians and lawmakers drowns out the quiet scientists.

James Marlow

Yet, you could rubberneck around Washington a good while and still not see the work in science being done here.

Since World War I Washington has become more and more a scientific center. It spurted into first place under the drive of World War II.

The Washington Post, recently speaking of the scientific growth of the city, said:

"Growth has been topsy-like—a cyclotron here, a wind-tunnel there, medical research laboratories somewhere else, until you look about and suddenly realize that your own backyard is a treasury of scientific endeavor."

More Science Headquarters

Probably more scientific organizations, including some of the largest, have their headquarters here than in any other one city. For example:

Here are some of the government centers:

The national institute of health—it investigates the causes of disease, and ways to prevent them.

The national cancer institute—it's doing research in cancer.

The agricultural research center—its great acres, just outside Washington are a swarm of scientific experiments with plants and animals.

Army Medical School

Army medical department's research and graduate school—among other things, it is investigating tropical diseases.

The national bureau of standards—it's one of the principal research and testing laboratories of the government in all kinds of fields, such a chemistry, physics, engineering, weights, measures, temperatures.

The U. S. weather bureau.

The naval observatory — its work is of utmost importance to aviation, ocean navigation and, in some ways, to industry.

The government is doing research here on guns, mines, torpedoes, and weapons like rockets that can travel faster than sound.

Then there's the food and drug administration, which makes continuing studies of food and drugs to see they're labeled right.

The list is long.

BUCYRUS Y.M.C.A. BOYS TO BE GUESTS AT GAME

Cleveland Indians Invite Crawford Countians June 11.

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, June 5—Bucyrus Y.M.C.A. boys will be guests of the Cleveland Indians at the Indian-Boston Red Sox game June 11 at Cleveland Municipal stadium if sufficient cars can be secured for transporting the boys to Cleveland.

Bucyrus service clubs are being asked to provide the cars and approximately 40 are needed to take the estimated 200 boys on the trip. All boys of the city between the ages of 11 and 15 have been invited to go.

Continued unfavorable weather caused the closing of the swimming pool at Aumiller park until Saturday, when the city park board met to consider current business Tuesday. The board also ruled that the ball grounds, now partially under water, may not be used until completely dried out and also took a vote—unanimously opposing the showing of carnivals or tent shows in the park.

* * *

Announcement has been made of the approaching marriage of Miss Jane Stuckert, daughter of Mrs. Anna Stuckert and M/Sgt. Frank Summers of Bakersfield, Calif. which will take place in San Francisco, June 29. Miss Stuckert and her mother will leave for the west coast June 21.

MEETING IN ASHLEY

ASHLEY—The Buckeye State Angora Rabbit Association was entertained Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wigton in Ashley. A picnic lunch was served at noon. A. L. Borgh of Columbus, president, had charge of the business and discussion. Mrs. Wigton is secretary. Members and guests were present from Delphos, Scott, Urbana, Columbus, Mt. Vernon, Latty and Ashley. The meetings are held quarterly and the next one is scheduled for Kent in September.

Marriage Licenses Outnumber Divorces

Marriage licenses issued for outnumbered divorces granted in Marion county courts during the month of May, according to court records. Forty-eight marriage licenses were issued while 13 divorces were granted.

Of the total number of divorces four were granted to husbands and nine to wives. Six cases were dismissed.

Two women asked that their maiden names be restored. Ten children figured in divorce cases, custody of seven being awarded to fathers and three to mothers. Twenty divorce petitions were filed during the month.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

How to Go to Sleep

We were sitting around Bill Webster's parlor Friday evening and the talk turned to the best way of overcoming sleeplessness....like breathing real slow and deep, imagining that you weigh a ton, or simply throwing away the pillow.

The consensus favored counting sheep. But right away was the question: what kind of sheep? There were some votes for countin' Merinos, Shropshires, Oxfords and Dorsets. Ed Mapes said he had best luck counting cranbrooks.

Finally, Burt Childers spoke up with his formula: A light snack and a mellow glass of beer at bedtime. Sort of puts you in the mood for quiet thoughts and peace of mind. Lets you relax . . . and "be home," off to pleasant dreams!

From where I sit, there's nothing like a temperate glass of beer to smooth away the creases of the day, relax a body, and pave the way for a good night's sleep. Try it, and see if I'm not right.

Wettest Spring In 65 Years Called One Of "Those Things"

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., June 5 — George N Mindling, U S meteorologist at Columbus, says the current spell of heavy spring weather is just "one of those things"—and don't try to make it out anything else, please

Mindling pooh-poohs those who hold that this spring, one of the wettest in the 65-year records of his office, got that way because of

(1) Sun-spots.

(2) Somebody isn't living right.

(3) A climatological sniff

In reverse order (like the weather) Mindling observes:

(3) The world still inclines at the same angle; there have been no changes in the composition of the atmosphere for thousands of years or more

(2) The rain falls alike on the just and the unjust.

(1) Nobody ever has proved sun-spots control the weather and a sun-spot cycle coinciding with a run of bad weather never has alarmed science.

Mindling's Q E D —"It's just an accident, that's all. Weather is like that."

P. S.—Even so the figures to date show a 5.31 inches of rain average for 18 Ohio stations in April against a 65-year normal of 3.21; 5.85 for May against the normal of 3.76; and 1.93 for infant June against 3.93 normal for the entire month.

Without Painful Backache

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

MISSING CLEVELAND BOY FOUND DROWNED

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, June 5—Services will be held here Saturday for seven-year-old Philip Luksic, whose wave-tossed body was found washed upon a Lake Erie beach at Mentor headlands in Lake county yesterday 16 days after his mysterious disappearance from a school picnic.

Last seen by a 10-year-old schoolboy as he was running through a concession stand at Euclid Beach park May 19 during a Catholic school day picnic, Philip's body was found by Tommy Riley, 12, who was exploring the shore of the lake.

Waves washed over the body 30 feet from the shore as young Riley ran to report the incident to his mother, who called the Lake county sheriff's office.

The body was identified by its clothing and two missing front teeth by Philip's father, Frank Luksic, who had been hopefully participating in a search for his son by Cuyahoga county authorities during the last two weeks.

"I never thought he would be found in the water," Luksic sadly said. "I never thought it would end like this."

Lake County Coroner W. R. Carle estimated the body had been in the water about two weeks, and said there were no marks of violence other than those which would be received by drifting through the lake for 16 days.

Besides his parents, the boy is survived by a brother, Mark, 12, and two sisters, Madeline 3, and Betty Ann, aged one month.

REP. WEICHEL NAMED HEAD OF COMMITTEE

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 5—Rep. Weichel (R-Ohio) became chairman of the house merchant marine and fisheries committee yesterday.

Acting on a recommendation of the committee on committees presented by Majority Leader Halleck (R-Ind), the house elected the former Erie county, O., prosecuting attorney to succeed the late Rep. Bradley (R-Mich).

Weichel is the first Ohioan to hold a major house committee chairmanship since 1930. He came to congress only four years ago. He is a 40-year-old bachelor.

A sharp critic of the maritime commission, Weichel drew national attention a few months ago when he issued a subpoena for Secretary of State George C. Marshall.

He wanted Marshall to explain why some United States ships still were in the possession of the Russians.

Bradley and Speaker Martin (R-Mass) cancelled the subpoena. Weichel had issued the subpoena as chairman of a subcommittee.

Secretary Marshall later appeared before the subcommittee voluntarily to discuss the Russian-held vessels.

A New Communist Tactic

IN TAKING control of Hungary, the Communists used a new tactic which proved just as effective as the rigged elections so successful elsewhere. Russia's occupying forces permitted a free election in Hungary and the conservative Small Holders party took office with the backing of more than half the voters.

"Advised" to organize a government with Communists in charge of the state police, the government soon had Communist police officials discovering "plots against democracy." There undoubtedly were such plots, but not the phony ones the police uncovered. Premier Nagy possibly was not firm enough in resisting infiltration of extreme leftists into positions of authority. The premier soon found himself swept out of office and the Soviets were crowing about another "triumph over democracy."

This latest Soviet coup proves that free elections are by no means a safeguard of free government. When the police power falls into the hands of Communists, it is possible for rumors of plots against the government and the illegal use of police authority to have the same effect as a rigged election.

Short and Sweet

WHAT may go down in history as the briefest speech in congressional annals has been made by Representative Frank A. Mathews, New Jersey Republican. Here is the full text as reported in the Congressional Record: "What this country needs is a foreign policy that is less foreign and more policy." Whereupon the gentleman from New Jersey sat down and the house proceeded to other matters.

This speech hardly will rank with the Gettysburg oration for nobility of conception or simple dignity, nor does it compare with the daily gems of wisdom of the late Will Rogers. However, it does prove that a congressman can get the floor, say only 15 words and sit down.

Up in the Air

BALLOON racing has been resumed in Europe for the first time since the war. Seven entries, representing three countries, took off from Le Mans, France. One of them ascended only 12 feet before it sank to the ground but rapid jettisoning of ballast sent it on its way again. Allegorists may find some significance in this.

International competitions of all kinds were a part of prewar Europe's normal life. France had long-distance bicycle races; England and Italy, auto races; Austria, motorcycle competition; track and field sports were popular, and soccer contests were among the important events of almost every capital.

It is appropriate that balloon racing be among the first international competitions to be revived. A balloon racer is in much the same fix as the world. He doesn't know where he's going, he doesn't know where he'll land and he doesn't know what storms are in his path. All he knows is that he's on his way.

The Mighty Meter

ADOPTION of the metric system by the International Aviation Organization means that, except in the United States, Great Britain and Mexico, aviators will express speeds, weights and distances in metric terms. This is an especially bitter blow to American instrument makers, who now will have to maintain two systems of calibration.

The metric system is used by the majority of the world's peoples. It is far simpler than English weights and measures, as anyone knows who has studied physics or chemistry. Advocates say it would reduce by 20 per cent the time spent on mathematics. The English system is a hit-or-miss collection built up through the centuries, and rare is the American who knows all its minims, grains, pecks, stones, cords, fathoms, penny-weights, scruples, furlongs, hands, rods and poles.

There are many places on the scale where the English system approximates metric measurements. If the English pound were increased by 10 per cent, it would be one-half kilogram; a mile is about the same as 1,500 meters; a metric ton and a long ton are the same, 2,200 pounds, and the meter is only 3.97 inches longer than a yard.

Superficially, it would not seem too complex a task to change over to the metric system but actually it would be very complicated and confusing. As with calendar reform, there are powerful arguments for the metric system, but they are not likely to change the product of centuries of use.

The ancient Spanish fleet which brought Inca treasures up from the mines of Bolivia and Peru to be transported across the Isthmus of Panama was called the Plate Fleet from the Spanish word for silver, "plata."

More than half the life insurance policies sold in the United States during 1944 were purchased by those with incomes under $3,000 a year and only one sixth by those with incomes over $5,000 a year.

Stalin and Hitler in 1939

By RAYMOND MOLEY

U. S. Gets Documents on Non-Aggression Pact.

HINTS and rumors are appearing that the state department has in its possession a mass of documents from German files which concern the Soviet-German non-aggression pact of 1939. This pact preceded the outbreak of the war, and it is a fair inference that Hitler delayed his attack on Poland until he had this assurance that the U.S.S.R. would stay neutral.

A colorful story is associated with acquisition of the documents. They were brought by Germans to American headquarters when the Russians were approaching Berlin. They were turned over to the Americans in order to prevent their falling into the hands of the Russians.

How sensational these documents will be when they are made public remains to be seen. Presumably, there are messages between Hitler and Stalin and between other figures in the two governments. They may add to the general feeling in this country that the Communists are hard and tricky traders.

Greetings To Hitler

But little needs to be added to the story of the German-Soviet agreement that events did not make clear at the time. A German refugee who fled from Denmark in 1941 through Russia and Japan, tells this reporter that more than a week before Ribbentrop flew to Moscow, in August, 1939, it was known in the Scandinavian countries that a Hitler-Stalin agreement was on the way. Later the story was known of the grand dinner which celebrated the pact. Stalin, who knew no German, was taught a few German words meaning "Give my greetings to Mr. Hitler." This he said several times with gusto and appropriate bottoms-up drafts of vodka.

The attitude of the Soviet leaders was explained in Moscow in 1941 by one of the high Soviet officials. He said that the deal with Hitler was the smartest thing a Russian government had done since Peter the Great. If Russia had joined the Western Powers, he said, she would have been overrun as was Poland. Instead, she got from Hitler several permanent objectives of Russian policy—a piece of Poland, undisputed control of the Baltic states, which provided a "window on the Baltic," and a strong frontier to the west. This frontier was the so-called Moltke Line, which included the Rokitno Swamps. Most important, the Russian explained, Stalin bought time—time to mobilize his strength.

Russia Prepared

A visitor to Russia in 1941 could see at every hand the evidence of war preparation. The postoffices, banks and stores were devoid of male personnel. The men had gone into the army, and the women had taken over. High officers in the Siberian army told a visitor that Hitler would certainly not attack, as he knew how well the Russians were prepared. They had established three lines—one from Leningrad to the Black Sea; one along the Volga; and a third from the Caspian Sea along the Urals.

Stalin probably hoped that Germany and the Western Powers would bleed themselves into weakness. Then Communism would spread over Europe, and he could dictate the peace. If, however, Hitler did turn East, he would measurably be ready. His hope for neutrality failed but he saved Russia for another day. That day is here.

The publication of the documents which fell into American hands might well clarify our relations with Russia. They would show not only what the Soviets got from Hitler, but what Hitler refused to give. The latter is what Soviet diplomacy wants now. Information about that would at least give us a picture of what Soviet objectives are.

The documents should be published, for there is no good reason for further secrecy.

Because of the illness of Paul Mallon, his Washington column which regularly appears in this space, is omitted today.

The Gossipy Or Gospel Truth?

The Presbyterian church has voted down a proposal to permit ordination of women as pastors.

This is in line with the old idea that the woman's place is in the parsonage.

They are entitled to equal rights before the law . . . . but not before the congregation.

Opening the pulpit to the feminine sex would be the signal for a mass invasion: Most sermons last upwards of an hour and every woman dreams of talking that long without being interrupted.

But it would be terribly expensive. None would be willing to get up before that many people without a new dress every week.

There'd be one advantage . . . . You wouldn't have to worry about being late to church because the preacher would be too.

Still, the Presbyterians have probably acted wisely. Women can go on preaching . . . but only to their husbands.

Merger and National Safety

By JOSEPH and STEWART ALSOP

WASHINGTON, June 5—In the morass of current trivilities, great issues and great problems have a tendency to get lost. One such is the unification of the armed services. After months of hearings, chiefly remarkable for the pettifogging tactics of such opponents of unification as Senator E. V. Robertson of Wyoming, a bill is at last being reported to the senate. Senate approval seems to be pretty well assured. If all goes well, the unification bill will then be jammed through the house, after curtailed hearings, at the close of the session. And Secretary of the Navy James V. Forrestal will probably be named to head the new combined defense establishment.

All this will be very fine—if it occurs. Despite obvious defects, the senate bill is a genuine triumph for Major General Lauris Norstad and Admiral Forrest Sherman, the two brilliant officers who are its real authors. As for the prospect of Forrestal's promotion, the President could find no better man for the immense task of inaugurating the new defense system. But since the bill has an excellent chance of getting lost in the general political shuffle, it is still highly relevent to point out some of the reasons why service unification remains one of the fundamental national problems.

President Unanswered

The present disunity of the service is responsible, for example, for the startling but undeniable fact that the United States is the only major power in the world without an agreed national strategy. In August, 1945, President Truman requested the august joint chiefs of staff to reassess the strategic situation of this country, and to present recommendations for action, based upon this re-assessment. But the corporate interests of the services would have been deeply affected by these recommendations, which would perforce have involved the roles and missions of the Army, Navy and Air Forces. And so the joint chiefs have never, to this day, suceeded in answering President Truman's letter, despite at least one stern reminder from the White House.

This basic division is in turn responsible, directly or indirectly, for all kinds of other omissions which would seem perfectly incredible if they were not accepted as quite a matter of course. One such is the failure to do anything truly decisive about the so-called Arctic frontier. The concept of the air staff, generally approved by the war department general staff, is that the main defense line of the United States has now become a great arc across the northern periphery of this hemisphere. Putting this concept into practice will demand construction of costly bases, warning systems, and other installations. A sort of lip service is being paid to the concept, in the form of a half-hearted program for testing the existing, and generally obsolescent military equipment in Alaska and at the Canadian-American base at Churchill on Hudson's Bay. But the decision, whether or no to make the essential investment for true defense of the Arctic frontier, has simply not been made.

Asiatic Situation

A slightly different omission, on an even larger scale, is the failure to adopt an Asiatic strategy. Here there are two alternatives. We can content ourselves with the simple defense of the Pacific, holding such island outposts as Okinawa, and allowing the whole continent of Asia ultimately to come under Soviet domination. Or we can make the necessary investment to halt the Russian infiltration of Asia (already well-advanced in Burma, Indo-China and Indonesia, as well as in China proper) by restoring stability to China. The investment demanded by the second alternative will be very great indeed, since the situation in China has been permitted to deteriorate in an appalling manner. But the price of the first alternative will be acceptance of the inclusion in the Soviet sphere of a billion and a half additional human beings, more or less, plus all of Asia's incalculable resources.

Until the present, no clear choice has been made, either by the joint chiefs of staff or on a higher level, between these alternatives. Now, when the situation in China is already desperate, it seems likely that the decision will be made to restore stability to China at all costs. Under the circumstances, it might have been better to face the facts of the national interest in Asia a year or two earlier.

Science Gets the Bird From an Old Fossil

By The Associated Press

BERKELEY, Calif.—Fossil remains of a hitherto unknown extinct bird which lived more than 40,000 years ago in the same period as the great sloth have been found in the La Brea pits of Los Angeles.

This bird, scientifically named Pandanaris, is a prehistoric relative of the modern blackbird and the oriole. It is described by Dr. Alden H. Miller, University of California zoologist, in the Condor, a bird study journal.

An upper and lower bill were found. Dr. Miller said these indicated the bird was of an entirely different type from any previously described.

The LaBrea pits are great deposits of a tar-like substance in which many prehistoric animals became mired.

U. S. Needs Help in Europe

By WALTER LIPPMANN

THE situation in Italy and in Central Europe has taken a decided turn for the worse just as the Senate is dealing with ratification of the satellite treaties. Yet it seems to me that what has happened is, if we examine it, a reason, though it runs counter to our feelings, for prompt ratification (which is what Secretary Marshall and Senator Vandenberg want) rather than for delay.

The new situation is marked by two connected events — one of them in Budapest and one in Rome. In Hungary and in Italy there have been until recently, and indeed since the armistice, coalition governments. Now there is in Hungary a government which the Communists dominate. In Italy there is now a government in which the Communists and the Socialists are not included, against which they are in open opposition and perhaps in actual rebellion.

What makes the situation so dangerously difficult is that the Communist-Socialist opposition to the present Italian government draws its main strength from the industrial areas of Northern Italy, which are separated only by an imaginary line from Yugoslavia and Hungary.

The stage is, therefore, set, the lines of communication have been opened for Soviet support of an Italian revolutionary opposition to the De Gasperi government in Rome.

Not Representative

Moreover, the political restraint on the Italian opposition has been reduced if not removed entirely, by the fact that the De Gasperi government does not represent the legally elected majority in the legislature.

It follows that the frontier between Italy and the Soviet orbit has now become more important than it was when James Byrnes, then secretary of state, was negotiating the Italian treaty.

The basic issue is, however, no longer what it was, that is to say where the frontier should be drawn, and who should have Trieste and Istria. The question now is whether any international frontier can be established and maintained which will separate the revolutionary opposition in Northern Italy from its allies in Yugoslavia, Hungary and the Soviet Union.

The ratification of the treaty will establish an international frontier which is legally binding upon all the United Nations. The violation of that frontier would then be a question for the United Nations. If, however, the treaty is not ratified, the dividing line will be merely the present armistice line which is held by British and American troops.

For this reason it seems to me that we have the greatest interest in a prompt ratification of the Italian treaty, and of the others which are grouped with it. For this will broaden the responsibility for the maintenance of law and order to include all the United Nations.

Our Responsibility

Delay, on the other hand, which in present conditions may be tantamount to rejecting the treaty, would put upon us, with such help as the British could give, the sole responsibility for maintaining the territorial integrity and maybe the independence, of Italy.

That would, I believe, multiply the risks and greatly increase the burden which we have assumed. No doubt we shall have to supply the economic support for Italian relief and recovery. But what we must seek to avoid is finding ourselves in a position where an Italian government, opposed by great masses of Italians, is sponsored and supported by the United States alone.

That would be ruinous to the Italian government, since it would be pictured as a minority government and a puppet of the United States. The State Department has already laid itself open to that line of attack, which the Soviets will surely pursue, by its effusive and clumsily-timed indorsement of the new De Gasperi government.

Europe cannot be saved from Soviet domination or from economic collapse and anarchy by a series of unilateral American interventions. The supreme problem which confronts Secretary Marshall is to extricate the United States from the consequences and the commitments of spasmodic unilateralism and to get it replaced by a European policy—which can promote, induce, and support but cannot initiate and impose — of reconstruction and unification and stabilization.

We are in grave danger, not of withdrawing into isolation as in 1919, but of advancing into isolated interventions all over the globe. We are not strong enough or wise enough to do that successfully, and we shall squander our influence, our power, and our resources if we attempt it.

Policy Responsibility

Thus we should not have a United States-Italian policy, as we now seem to have, but only an Allied policy in which Great Britain and France, at the minimum, have an equal moral and political responsibility. For to have an American-Italian policy is not a true policy of international co-operation but in the literal and worst meaning of the words an "entangling alliance."

We are too far out front in too many places. We are taking on ourselves too many problems. We are making too many quick decisions. We are accepting too many moral commitments. We are striking too many attitudes.

For our own good, and for the sake of peace most of these things should be shared as to political responsibility, with other governments. For otherwise we may find that Uncle Sam is the head of the parade and that everybody is out of step but Uncle.

Stalin and the Radio

The Bear that Walks Like a Veto has decided to go for the Radio That Talks Like A Capitalist.

• • •

Russia will permit commercials on its radio system. It will overlook the discrediting fact that there is money in it.

• • •

In the past Moscow has scorned the sponsored broadcast, the theory being that if there is anything to be said to the people about soap, toothbrush and dandruff the Kremlin would say it. Joe Stalin has always shrunk from that "Are you over 35?" query and from the idea that everything would come out swell if you use the right milk of magnesia.

• • •

But he has now waived his concept that anybody who can pay for a radio program at present rates must be a particularly contemptible person or a fellow with money.

• • •

However, we hear that Stalin only okays the commercial up to the point where it is implied that soap flakes, cigarets and a fast-selling soft drink are the key to happiness.

• • •

The world will watch the Soviet experiment with the commercial with keen interest. If Moscow falls for the radio jingle, it will be taken as indicating the first crack in the Russian armor. Once any people stand for those jingles it proves they are not as strong as they think.

• • •

We will feel closer to Stalin the minute we hear the Kremlin speeches preceded by a one white call.

The natural question is "What is Russia selling, anyhow, besides Russia?"

• • •

Did you ever hear of a Volga boatman yelling for a hair tonic? Can you imagine Molotoff getting anybody argue him into a cereal he had never tried or taking it because J. P. Morgan liked it. Can you fancy Gromyko's reaction to a soft voice purring "Do you feel irritable, quarrelsome and out of sorts with the world?"

• • •

We believe deeply that there will be limitations to the Russian commercials, with the cough drop man opening with a plug for Stalin and closing with an indorsement of Totalitarism.

• • •

"And now, the Ivanovitch Magic Pill Program ...Take a Ivanovitch Pill after each meal and get that permanent anti-American feeling!

"You are now listening to the Minsk-Pinsk Crispy Whispies Hour, makers of the cereal shot from Kremlin guns. Demand them for breakfast and you will be amazed to find how easily you can throw off all suggestions that you keep a promise!" . . . "Are you troubled with that gnawing feeling that you may make friends of trust an ally? Drop in at the nearest drugstore now and buy a bottle of International Tablets guaranteed to make you suspicious of your best friends and nearest neighbors!"

That's Over

By TRUMAN TWILL

Housecleaning at the Twillery was late this year. Instead of eating wallpaper cleaner with the spring onions and dandelion greens, both in need of improvement, the stuff was eaten with the early strawberries.

According to specifications of the Bureau of Household Standards, wallpaper cleaner is the richest known source of Vitamin Z, which makes human beings want to do or die for Harvard, housecleaning, or whatever's handy. One wall of cleaner contains enough minimum daily essentials for one housecleaner, two children, three dogs and a lady of the house. Science has discovered, however, that most ladies of the house contain housecleaning hormones which are active during the month of May and this explains a lot. Ladies of the house would be bothersome during this season even without wallpaper cleaner.

Science has discovered some other things about housecleaning, such as the ability of a houseful of its victims to sustain life over a long period of time on a diet of canned soup, crackers and warmed-over coffee. The United States Army has called on a committee of housewives to teach it how to simplify its field rations. The only question is whether fighting men can be persuaded to eat wallpaper cleaner without writing notes to their congressmen.

It is believed probable the Army can get around this difficulty by disguising the wallpaper cleaner as a canned meat called Whamo. In this form the stuff will be eaten because the consumers imagine it is good for them, which is half the battle. At least they will eat it with better grace than the civilians who have to gorge themselves on the stuff once a year, also to sleep with it, fight it in the bathtub, fish it out of their shoes, pick it loose from their tooth brushes and comb it out of their hair—and are under no illusions at all.

There finally comes a time when the breaking point is reached and all who have been overfed on wallpaper cleaner resolve if they see one more wisp, clot, chunk, crumb, or pellet of the stuff they will not be responsible. This fact made known in an angry voice, the signal for housecleaning. Rather than deal with the probability of an inmate running amuck and refusing to eat any more canned soup, the lady of the house says that will be enough until another year. She has gone far enough.

Some years, patience plays out sooner than other years, all depending on the ingredients in the wallpaper cleaner, which is richer in Vitamin Z some years than other. This year the cleaner was a little under average, due to difficulty in getting raw material, which has to be piped into this country from the frozen north, where it occurs in its native state as a kind of fungus on the bellies of polar bears. Some fungus. It's a wonder anyone survives.

Fellowship Will Sponsor Christ For Youth Rally

The Youth Fellowship of Calvary Evangelical United Brethren church is sponsoring a Christ for Youth Rally to be held for two weeks beginning Sunday, June 8, through June 22.

The name for the spring rally, Christ For Youth, was decided on by the executive committee composed of Kenneth Dutt, president; Mary Jane Ralph, vice president; Nancy Kuntz, secretary; and Rose Marie Hinamon, treasurer. The group has been planning for the rally for some time, and Mrs. Betty Brodbeck, youth director, has arranged for special music by the newly organized and newly robed youth choir of 24 voices.

Rev. James Sutherland, a pastor and youth worker in Akron, O., will be the speaker for the rally. He is a son of Rev. R. L. Sutherland of 440 East Mark street, pastor of the Greenwood Evangelical United Brethren church.

Soloist and song leader for the services will be Rev. Dewey Long of Wagram, O., and Mrs. J. W. Baker, church organist, who will be pianist and organist.

The meetings will begin each night at 8 o'clock and will be held every night except Saturday. They are designed by youth to meet the needs of youth, and an invitation is being extended by the Calvary church fellowship to all youth organizations in Marion to join in the rally. The rally is a new adventure with the young people of Calvary church, but they are certain, that with Christ, it will be a success.

Work on New Delaware Factory To Start Soon

DELAWARE, O., June 4—Construction of the new Ranco Inc. plant here will be started soon and production is expected to start by fall, E. C. Raney, president of the Columbus firm, told members of the city council here Monday night.

The Ranco Co. specializes in automatic electric controls and in recent months has developed a control now being used in automobile air conditioning.

Sufficient material has been delivered to complete the first building and detailed plans for the construction are being made. Future expansion until the company uses 225,000 feet of floor space is expected, Mr. Raney said. The first building will measure 200 by 106 feet.

Last year council prepared to push installation of the necessary water and sewer lines and $100,000 general obligation bonds were issued this spring to finance the installations which are planned for the southwest, northwest and east sections of the city.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

Virus Pneumonia

During the past 12 years there has been a great increase in a new kind of pneumonia. Known as virus of atypical pneumonia, this disorder is less severe as a rule than the older and more familiar forms of this disease, and that is very fortunate since neither the sulfonamide drugs nor penicillin are of value in treating it.

Though we do not know the exact cause of this form of pneumonia, it is entirely possible that it is produced by a virus, the smallest and most mysterious of all disease-causing organisms.

Virus pneumonia may affect people of all ages but it attacks young adults more often than any other group. It also seems able to make its attacks in all seasons and under all weather conditions though it becomes most prevalent during the open season for colds.

A person who has been exposed usually develops the disease within one of three weeks. According to Dr. Edward C. Curnen of Yale University School of Medicine, New Haven, Conn., the condition usually begins gradually. The first symptoms are those of a cold. There may be tiredness, fever, and headache.

Other early symptoms are chilly sensations and a cough. Coughing may produce pain underneath the breastbone or there may be pain on the side of the chest. The cough is usually dry at first, but soon the patient begins to bring up mucus which may be tinged with blood. Fever is almost always present during the beginning of the illness, but the breathing rate and the pulse are, as a rule, not faster than normal.

Upon examination, the physician hears what are known as rales, which are abnormal sounds made as the air passes in and out of the lungs. A definite diagnosis often can be made only by means of an X-ray examination of the chest. The infection usually affects the lower parts of the lungs. The number of white blood cells is usually normal or only slightly increased. This differs from what occurs in other types of pneumonia. The fever generally lasts for about ten days, and the condition usually clears up within about two weeks. However, in a patient study by Dr. Curnen, some got well in three days, while in others the conditions lasted as long as forty-one days.

Complications as a rule do not occur, but such things as sinus infection, middle-ear infection, and inflammation of the mouth may develop.

Since we have no drugs which attack the virus directly, in treating these conditions it is necessary to prescribe rest and pain-relieving drugs for the headache and cough. The drug used for relieving the cough must not be too strong or the cough reflexes will be entirely eliminated which may be harmful. As in all illnesses where treatment is directed at conserving the patient's strength, good nursing care is of prime importance.

SCHOOL STORM WARNINGS UP

State Senators Bitter About Changes Wrought in Daniels-Cramer Bill.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., June 5—Storm warnings were up today for conference committee members who will seek to reconcile differences in senate and house versions of the Daniels-Cramer school bill.

That the task would be difficult was indicated by the scorn which senators heaped on house reductions in foundation subsidies from nearly $89,000,000 to $83,500,000 annually.

The senate by a vote of 32 to 2 refused to accept house amendments. Representatives, who set something of a record for tumult in passing the bill, stood firm on their changes and demanded a conference group.

The three house and three senate conferees have yet to be named.

Charges House Railroading

Sen. Albert L. Daniels (R-Highland), co-author of the school bill, took the house to task for the way he said the measure was "railroaded" on the eve of Memorial day.

It was one of the most damnable exhibitions of representative government that has ever come to my attention," Daniels told the senate.

Daniels said the $83,500,000 was insufficient for adequate pay increases to teachers and a provision that 75 per cent of the increase over last year must go for salary boosts precluded use of the funds in making needed faculty additions.

He defended the "school lobby," which was roundly criticized in the house for "pressure tactics," as an organization composed of teachers who have the support of parents and others vitally interested in schools.

"It's not backed by the Ohio Chamber of Commerce, which seems to follow the theory that to keep people in ignorance, is the way to get them to work for nothing" Daniels chided.

"Bad Then, Worse Now"

Sen. Fred G. Reiners (R-Hamilton) said he protested the house changes for other reasons.

"It was a bad bill when it passed the senate and worse when it passed the house," Reiners asserted.

Declaring the measure favored small counties and neglected larger ones, he added

"I don't know of anything more unfair to counties like Cuyahoga and Hamilton in the distribution of money. I hope the conference committee will give the teachers what they deserve."

Sen. Howard Metzenbaum (D-Cuyahoga) said that while "pressure" was being discussed, Gov Thomas J. Herbert should be cited

"The governor was found in the well of the house," while the school-bill was being debated, Metzenbaum recalled.

"Apparently he is interested in pressure, but against anyone else bringing pressure," the Clevelander observed.

"WILL-O-THE-WISP" ROBBER CAPTURED

By The Associated Press

CARPENTER, Ky., June 5—Robert Trauth, 22-year-old "will-o-the-wisp bandit" sought by police of two states for nearly two months, today awaited arraignment on a federal charge after his capture here yesterday by a posse of state highway patrolmen

A. J. Ostholthoff, FBI agent in charge at Cincinnati, where Trauth is charged with receiving goods stolen from interstate shipment, said the Newport, Ky., youth probably would be moved there sometime today.

Trauth, who also is charged with 10 or more armed robberies in the Cincinnati-Northern Kentucky area, surrendered with little chance to resist as highway patrolmen and an FBI agent nabbed him in this countian community just as he prepared to drive away with a pretty girl acquaintance.

After Trauth, who had escaped several earlier police traps, was spotted at the home of the girl, 18-year-old Hazel Knight, the place was surrounded.

No charges were placed against the Knight girl but she was held for questioning

RAILROAD MERGER TO TAKE PLACE FRIDAY

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, June 5 — Merger of the Pere Marquette and Chesapeake and Ohio railroads, will be performed tomorrow morning at Richmond, Va., says Robert J. Bowman, president of both roads.

Attempts to forestall the merger by holders of Pere Marquette stock failed yesterday at Alexandria, Va., when a three-judge federal court refused to issue a temporary injunction prohibiting the action Bowman's announcement was made a few hours after the jurists' ruling.

The injunction was asked by Albert E. Schwabacker Sr. and other representatives of the Joseph Koshland trust, major holders of Pere Marquette's five per cent cumulative preferred stock.

Federal judges overruled Schwabacker's claim that merger with C. and O. would wipe out dividends on Pere Marquette preferred stock now in arrears

Completion of the consolidation, which has been considered by majority stockholders of the two roads for several months, would entitle Pere Marquette stockholders to exchange their shares and receive dividends on C and O shares which they will obtain under the plan for a merger

Approved by the interstate commerce commission under an order made final today, the merger also has been sanctioned by majorities of stockholders of C and O and Pere Marquette, and by directors of both roads.

Search Renewed For Lake Sinking Victims

By The Associated Press

FORT WILLIAM, Ont., June 5—Search was renewed today in the cold waters of Lake Superior for 10 missing bodies of victims who perished when the Canadian freighter Emperor sank early yesterday morning on jutting rocks of Isle Royale

Twelve crew members were believed drowned, while 21 others who managed to board lifeboats or scramble atop the rocks were rescued by the Coast Guard cutter Kimball.

Threatening weather forced a delay in the grim hunt for victims yesterday afternoon after the bodies of two women—Mrs. Joseph Tobachuk, 30, of Fort William, and Mrs. Edna Schultz of Owen Sound, Ont. — had been taken from the water.

The Canada Steamship Lines, owner of the ill-fated ship that was carrying iron ore to the lower lakes, announced Northern Engineering Company's vessel, Coastal Queen, had been commissioned to renew the search for another woman and nine men.

MURDER TRIAL AT NEWARK NEARS END

By The Associated Press

NEWARK, O., June 5—Jurors hearing the first degree murder trial of Ralph David Hoffer, 23-year-old dishonorably discharged war veteran accused in the slaying last July 27 of Mrs. Thelma Harger Anderson, 17, may be ready to commence deliberations tomorrow.

Judge Clifford L. Belt, Belmont county jurist appointed to hear the Licking county case, indicated that much today when he said the prosecution's final six witnesses would be heard this morning and defense witnesses would be summoned to the stand in the afternoon.

Initial witnesses heard yesterday after two attempts by defense attorneys to gain a mistrial ruling, testified to the brutality of the crime; Hoffer's intention to wed a 16-year-old Newark girl, and his alleged actions the night Mrs. Anderson's body was found in a west Newark field.

Dr Louis Mitchell, Newark pathologist, testified that the victim had been beaten to the point where she "looked like she had been in a street fight." He added that her discolored throat indicated strangulation.

Helen Renner, who said her sister Dorothy planned to wed Hoffer "about Aug 1," related that the accused appeared at her home the evening of the slaying in car containing other members of his family. She testified Hoffer told her he had been in a street fight earlier that night

A west Newark resident, Francis Hollis, told of having seen a young girl being followed by two men, one of whom seemed "drunk".

Harry Crampton, testified that he was with Hoffer and Mrs Anderson, July 27, and that Hoffer took his billfold containing $40, and threatened to kill him.

FLASH FIRE CLAIMS TWO WORKERS' LIVES

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, June 5—A flash fire was brought under control less than a half-hour, but it took two lives yesterday at the Ohio Chemical Industries plant and caused damage estimated at the "thousands of dollars."

The victims were: Harry Wongel, 36, of nearby Covington, and Harvey W. Herms, 29, of suburban Dayton, Ky.

Fire Marshal Chester Held, who estimated the damage, said Wongel was dead when firemen reached his side, a few minutes after the blaze was extinguished. Herms died at General hospital of third degree burns over most of his body.

Two other workers, Elmer Winkler, 36, and Hugh McKinney, 30, both of Cincinnati, were treated for minor burns.

Held said naptha fumes were ignited, causing the flash of fire. The four men were working in one of the plant's several one-story buildings, completing installation of pipe lines carrying steam and water to a storage tank, he said.

There was quantity of naptha fumes in the air from a minor leak, Held added, and a spark from the tools the men were using apparently set off the blaze.

NEW AUTO MOTORS EXPECTED SHORTLY

By DAVID J. WILKIE
Associated Press Automotive Editor

FRENCH LICK, Ind., June 5—Engines of higher compression ratios will be incorporated in near future model automobiles, but several years probably will elapse before the fullest economies of the improved engine and higher quality gasoline may be realized.

This was the general reaction today among automobile power plant experts who heard Charles F. Kettering, engineer-scientist, report to the Society of Automotive Engineers (SAE) on progress in engine and fuel improvement research.

Kettering, who retired this week as head of General Motors' research division but remains as an engineering consultant, gave SAE members a lengthy technical description last night of an experimental engine with about double present average compression ratios, and utilizing a fuel of much higher octane rating that is commonly available.

What it all means to the average motorist, Kettering said, is an eventual increase of about 33 1/3 per cent in his mileage from a gallon of gasoline. The overall saving to American motorists in fuel outlay, he added, should be about a billion dollars a year.

Ohio Grange Head Asks Fund Cuts Be Restored

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., June 5—Joseph W. Fichter, master of the Ohio State Grange, today appealed to Ohio congressmen to press for restoration of agricultural budget reductions made by the house of representatives appropriations committee.

In a letter to Buckeye solons at Washington, Fichter said that the "so-called good financial position" of Ohio farmers could soon be dissipated because "prices of supplies are now so high farmers cannot afford to do the things that need to be done to keep farms operating."

Eleven states have smaller populations than the District of Columbia's 900,000.

Revamped City Zoning Law To Go Before Council Soon

Recommendations for revamping Marion's zoning ordinance are expected to be presented to city council by the city planning commission within a month. The commission has been engaged in studies of the present zoning ordinance and going over the city street by street in order to find an answer to the need for expanding commercial and industrial districts. The commission took the problem under study last summer and has been considering its various phases at weekly meetings since then.

One of the most puzzling problems with which city officials are said to contend is "spot" zoning allowed under the present ordinance. Spot zoning is a phrase used to describe the rezoning of individual lots in areas of the city designated as residential to commercial or industrial zones. The practice has been most common in cases of property owners who wished to erect business buildings on lots they already owned.

Circumvents Original Idea

Spot zoning as practiced in Marion today contradicts the original theory of the zoning ordinance enacted by city council to keep residential areas free from commercial or industrial encroachment. Instead of permitting property owners to change the zoning of individual lots, purpose of the original ordinance was to keep commercial and industrial enterprises confined to certain areas, city officials explain, pointing out that if anyone wishes to engage in an enterprise classified as either commercial or industrial, under this scheme, he should purchase land in an area alerady zoned for that purpose.

Under provisions of the zoning ordinance passed in 1930 and amended in 1937, changes in commercial, residential, or industrial zones must be made by amendment to the ordinance. To have this done, a property owner must submit his request to the city solicitor who prepares legislation to be submitted to council. Council refers the proposal to the city planning commission for recommendations. After the legislation has been returned to council a public hearing must be set before council votes on the proposal. If council does not wish to abide by a recommendation of the planning commission a majority of three fourths of the members is required to veto the commission's recommendation.

Consent Required

No action to rezone an area can be made without first receiving consent of owners of surrounding properties, signified by a petition of property owners which must accompany the request for rezoning. Even though there may be no objection by adjoining property owners, it was pointed out, the present system is not operating for the benefit of the majority of Marion residents, and rather tends to favor the few who wish to make the change for business reasons.

From a glance at the city map it might seem the easiest thing to do would be simply to widen the industrial and commercial areas already designated. However, since most of these areas within the city are surrounded by residential areas, the solution is not that simple. Just what recommendations the commission will make to help solve the problem have not been disclosed.

The city planning commission is composed of the mayor, city safety-service director, chairman of the park board and four others not holding positions in the city administration who are appointed for two-year terms by the mayor. Terms of the four appointees are staggered so that not more than two may be appointed at one time.

Members of the present board are Mayor Harry L. Dowler, Safety-Service Director E. O. Uncapher, H. P. Drake, park board chairman, W. J. Craner, Andrew Baldauf, W. E. Orcutt and Henry Krigbaum.

Galion Club Hears Talk on Galapagos

GALION, June 5 — Leo Brown of the Junior High school faculty was speaker for the dinner-meeting of the Galion Rotary club, Monday evening, at Hotel Talbott. He told of his experiences while investigating possibilities of supporting life on the Galapagos Islands off the coast of Equador during the war. He described plant and animal life on the islands, and said that animals had never been hunted there thus causing them to be unusually tame. The speaker was introduced by the program chairman, Clarence Myers.

Guests of the club, Monday evening were: Carl Albrecht of Haines City, Fla., a former Galion resident; Cecil Maxwell of Cardington, and C. D. Albright of Bucyrus, all Rotarians.

PAVE ALL STREETS WITH CONCRETE!
because—
- Every street needs a gritty, non-skid surface for the protection of motorists and pedestrians.
- At night you need a pavement with high visibility.
- Safety also calls for a pavement that is free from chuck holes, ruts and bumps . . . and stays that way with minimum maintenance.
- You want a pavement that drains quickly . . . that is easily cleaned and stays clean . . . no depressions to catch dirt.
- You want a pavement that makes the whole neighborhood look modern, prosperous, attractive.

Concrete . . . and only concrete . . . completely meets all of these specifications.

If calcium or sodium chlorides are likely to be used for ice and snow removal, be sure your concrete pavements are built with air-entrained concrete.

IT'S TIDE...

...you've never used anything like it!

TIDE is the postwar miracle you've been waiting for! Developed as a result of wartime research, Tide does what's never been done before—washes clothes cleaner than any soap, yet leaves colors brighter! Expect to see something entirely different when you use Tide. Even the suds look and feel different! And those wonder suds billow up instantly even in hardest water . . . form none of that disagreeable hard-water scum . . . leave no cloudy deposits on clothes or round the tub!

ONLY Tide DOES ALL FOUR!

1. Washes clothes cleaner!

It's a real washday miracle; the way Tide gets the most stubborn dirt out of heavy laundry . . . even heavily soiled work clothes and greasy overalls! Tide leaves clothes free—not only from ordinary dirt—but from grey, dingy soap film as well. That's why Tide washes cleaner!

2. Actually brightens colors!

Tide washes away every bit of dulling soap film left from former washings . . . leaves dainty washable colors so thoroughly clean and fresh-looking that brightness perks up like magic!

3. Never "yellows" white things!

Turn to Tide for dazzling white washes that stay white, week after week! Tide can't turn white things yellow, no matter how often you wash them or how long you store them.

4. Gives more suds - Prove it in your dishpan!

Tide gives more suds, faster suds than any soap . . . washes dishes cleaner than any soap! Those amazing suds cut grease like magic . . . do a so much cleaner, easier job. No scum in the water! No greasy ring round the pan! No cloudy film on dishes and glasses! That's why they rinse and dry so sparkling clear—even without wiping!

By DON C. BURTON

The Marion Cubs broke a five-game losing streak with a 9-6 win over the Lima Terriers in a ragged game at Lincoln park last night.

Bill Rosin proved the streak stopper for the Cubs as he won his fifth game as against two losses. Each team lashed out 12 hits as the batters had the upper hand.

Strahs, Lima hurler proved better with the willow than on the mound as he bashed out a double and triple in addition to a pair of walks.

Burbrink Gets Three

Manager Nelson Burbrink collected three hits in five trips to the plate and added two runs to his runs batted in leadership. The three safeties gave popular Nelse a batting mark of .449 and a runs batted total of 38.

Both marks are tops in the Ohio State league. In addition Burbrink collected two stolen bases.

The Dayton Indians will oppose the Cubs in a single game tonight at Lincoln park in a battle for fifth place. John Edington, Marion boy, has been nominated to pitch for the locals. The Indians are here for a two game stand.

Bobzean In Despite Injury

Gene Bobzean who has been playing for several days with a bad finger on his throwing hand collected three hits, but the injured digit handicapped his throwing, an art in which Gene excells, and he committed two errors on throws to first base. The fingernail on his middle finger is torn loose.

The Cubs grabbed a run in the first inning on a walk to Hollingshead and a hit by Maxhimer which followed an infield out. John Smith, who has improved the Cubs infield play, made several fine throws to first when the batter apparently had him beaten by several steps. Smith led off with a single in the third and move up on a walk to Maxhimer.

Ex-Cub with Lima

An error by John Scavo, former Marion outfielder now playing second base for the Terriers, on Burbrink's grounder let in one run and Forbes drove in the other on an out at first base.

The usual big inning for the Cubs came in the fourth when hits by Rosin, Bobzean, Burbrink and Forbes coupled with a walk to Maxhimer and an error on Smith brought four runs over the plate.

Lima had failed to dent the plate until the fifth as Rosin was having his usual effectiveness. In this session Rosy walked two and allowed hits to Breslin and Raucher to score three runs, aided by Bobzean's wild throw on Maisch's roller.

The Terrier put on a futile rally in the ninth which died short. Maisch started it with a long home run over the left centerfield wall. Then a hit by Kowalski and three walks and an outfield fly produced two runs and left the tieing runs on base.

The Brownies, who had won 10 of 12 previous starts, gave the Dodgers the victory in a tilt that took three hours to play, saw 22 bases on balls, 30 hits, and seven errors.

Four Newark hurlers contributed 15 walks while three Zanesville flingers spread seven.

In other games Dayton's Indians scored an 8 to 6 win over Muncie's Packers, and Marion defeated Lima, 9 to 6.

Reds Just 4 Points Away from Bottom

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, June 5 — Just the thickness of the cellar door—four percentage points to be exact — separated the hapless Cincinnati Reds from last place in the National league today as they met the Phillies in a twin bill.

Victims of the smooth, six-hit pitching of lefty Ken Heintzelman, the Redlegs fell before the Philadelphia club 9-2 yesterday to reach a new low for the season.

The Phillies took a 2-0 lead in the opening round, and in the fifth, after the Reds had counted one marker, exploded for three more.

The Reds scored again in the eighth but the roof fell in on them in the Phils' half and it was 9-2 before they recovered.

Ewell Blackwell and Elmer Riddle will hurl for the Redlegs today with Oscar Judd and Ken Raffensberger providing the oppositon.

SCHLAIRET ASSEMBLY SET

Injuries May Spoil Tries Of Loop Flag Contenders

By The Associated Press

Injuries the first week in June may have been the turning point of the campaign for the major baseball league 1947 race winners.

In the past few days the Detroit Tigers and Boston Red Sox in the American league and the Brooklyn Dodgers and Chicago Cubs in the National have been crippled by injuries which might prove damaging to their pennant aspirations.

Pete Reiser, Dodger star center fielder, suffered a "laceration of the skull" in a collision with the concrete center field wall at Ebbets Field.

Three Detroiters Hurt

Three Detroit regulars were injured in yesterday's double header with the New York Yankees. They were George Kell, hard-hitting third baseman; Dick Wakefield, slugging left fielder and Paul (Dizzy) Trout, one of the Tigers' first string pitchers.

Kell suffered cuts on the left knee and right hand from the spikes of New York's George Stirnweiss, on a close play at third. Wakefield twisted his left knee sliding into second. Trout, leading 6-2 in the last of the seventh of the same game, gave way to Freddie Hutchinson after a recurrence of an old groin injury.

Tuesday night at the Polo Grounds, the Cubs suffered three mishaps. Third baseman Stan Hack twisted a leg while chasing a Giant player in a rundown and will be out indefinitely. Outfielder Bill Nicholson and first baseman Ed Waitkus were hit by batted balls and Waitkus fell headlong into box seats. Only two days before, second baseman Don Johnson was sidelined by injuries.

Dom DiMaggio Out

The Red Sox, already hard pressed by the season-long loss of southpaw Mickey Harris, lost their fleet center fielder, Dom DiMaggio, who pulled a shoulder ligament.

On the playing end, the Cubs, behind the four-hit pitching of Fordham Hank Borowy, handed the Giants their first shutout defeat of the season and went into a first place tie with the New Yorkers.

The Dodgers were led by Pee Wee Reese, who hit a grand slam home run off Elmer Singleton, moved within four points of the deadlocked Cubs and Giants by whipping the Pirates for the third stright time 9-4.

Detroit divided a doubleheader with the Yankees. After the Tigers had copped the opener 6-2 behind Trout, the Yankees unloosed their siege guns to take the nightcap 17-8.

Cards Still Low Man

The Boston Braves prevented the St. Louis Cardinals from leaving the National league cellar by defeating the Red Birds 3-1.

Home runs by Ted Williams and Sam Mele, the latter with one on, gave the Boston Red Sox and Joe Dobson, a 5-2 victory over the Browns in St. Louis.

The Philadelphia Athletics pounded across seven runs in the top of the 11th to whip the White Sox in Chicago 10-3.

"Slugger" Feller Wins Sixth Pitching Victory

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, O., June 5—Bob (Slugger) Feller of the Cleveland Indians had his sixth hurling victory today — thanks to the power of his bat and an "extra zip" in his gold-plated right arm.

Feller rebounded from four straight sorrowful mound appearances last night by belting three timely hits as he carved out a 6-2 victory over the troublesome Washington Senators at Lakefront Stadium.

Pat Pat Seerey also joined the slump-snapping celebration by booming a home run into the left field stands in the fourth inning. It was Seerey's seventh circuit clout of the season and his first in more than three weeks.

Feller started the rally which snapped the Tribe's three-game losing streak in the third inning when he rapped a double and scored on Eddie Yost's three-base error. Hal Peck crossed the plate a moment later on the first of three safeties by Ken Keltner.

Following Seerey's grandstand poke in the fourth, Feller lined a single to center and made the rounds on one-baggers by Peck and Keltner. The same trio combined in the sixth to clinch the game on Feller's two-bagger, Peck's single and Keltner's second double.

Breezing along behind a comfortable lead, Bob was touched for three straight hits and two runs by the Nats in the sixth, but bore down the rest of the way to notch seven strikeouts as he limited Washington to eight bingles.

Feller smiled in the dressing room after the game as he said: "My fast ball had more rise, and everything else seemed to have some extra zip. I threw the same stuff with a slider mixed in—and it worked."

Elyria Guard Elected Ohio State Grid Captain

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., June 5—Bob Jabbusch, 24-year-old married guard from Elyria, yesterday was elected captain of Ohio State university's football team for the 1947 campaign.

The squad named Jabbusch, a letterman at Ohio State in 1942 and 1946, marking the third straight year that a guard had been selected to lead the Bucks. Bill Hackett was captain in 1945, and Warren Amling, later shifted to tackle, piloted the Bucks a year ago.

Jabbusch, who will be a senior in the fall, was in the army from May, 1943 through November, 1945, and saw action in the battle of the Bulge.

Fesler's Talk No Bar To O. S. U. Grid Prospects

Upper Boy Named

Here are some of the names you'll be hearing and reading about next fall—boys who have put it down on paper that they'll attend Ohio State:

Center—Jim Bartlett of Cincinnati Elder, six-two and 190 pounds.

Guard—Joe Tanerner of Toledo Libbey, five-10 and 210.

Tackles—Jerry Manz, Toledo Libbey, five-10 and 210; Robert Momsen, Toledo Libbey, six-two and 203; Nick Bolkova, Youngstown Wilson, six-one and 224; John Hardie, Shelby, six-two and 200; Don Wendell, North Canton, six-three and 238.

End—Ed Basinger, Lima South, six-one and 176.

Halfbacks — Gus Hlebovy, Youngstown Wilson, five-10 and 160; Dick Elwood, Dover, six feet and 185; Park Blubaugh, Lima Central, six-one and 198.

Fullbacks — Robert Wright, Greenville, six feet and 185; Harold Rife, Upper Sandusky, five-10 and 200; and Alen Webber, Lisbon, five-11 and 178.

Fesler Offers Advice

Over around Coshocton there's plenty of speculation about where "Mail Man" Karl Sturtz will do his leather-lugging next fall He's one of the Buckeye state's standouts and it appears that every coach in the country is after him.

Howdy House, writing in the Coshocton Tribune, offers Sturtz a bit of advice which a lot of other Ohio hopefuls have already taken to heart. House said:

"We hope Mailman Karl remembers the good advice of Wes Fesler, now head football man at Ohio State, peddled at the grid banquet here last December. Fesler told the Redskins:

"'You can't eat football. Remember that while you're still playing. Prepare for those days when you have to make your own way.'"

Fesler, when he said that at Coshocton, was still coach at Pittsburgh—but he's still dwelling on that idea as Ohio State's mentor. And no one has found an argument with it.

Minor Loop Player Fired from Baseball

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., June 5—Marion Allen McElreath, outfielder with Muskogee, Okla., club of the Western Association, today was banned permanently from baseball by President George M. Trautman of the National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs.

Trautman's action was taken under major-minor rule 21 (A) which decrees that a player must give his best efforts toward winning, and that he must not "solicit or attempt to induce any player * * * to lose or attempt to lose."

The head of the minors said President Thomas Fairweather of the Western Association reported to him May 10 that McElreath had approached a fellow player with a proposition that they join in a wager on the outcome of a game.

Trautman said his investigation ascertained that on May 4, at St. Joseph, Mo., McElreath told a fellow player that "we can make some good money if we throw one of the games" to be played that afternoon. When the player declined to join the scheme, Trautman's report said that McElreath answered:

"I don't see why you won't do it, because they don't care anything about you."

The player reported the matter the following day. Trautman said his investigation of the May 4 game showed that, with Muskogee leading 5 to 1, and St. Joseph at bat with the bases loaded, McElreath missed a high fly which went for a triple, three runs scoring.

Later in the game, Trautman reported, with Muskogee at bat and leading 5 to 4, with a man on first, batter McElreath signaled for the "hit and run" but failed to swing at a called strike, the runner being thrown out at second.

Smitty's Shellac Ashland Nine 20-2

The Ashland Merchants proved to be not match for Smitty's All-Stars last night. Playing at Crystal Lake park Smitty's crew shellaced them 20 to 2 on 18 hits.

Smitty's used four pitchers during the game. Millisor twirled the first three innings allowing only one hit and then Roseberry, Hart, and Howison each did a turn as Ashland collected four hits off them.

The All-Stars set a record for themselves for runs in one inning as they chased 13 cross in the second. Chuck Reid batted three times in this frame. Although Fritz Walters played only two innings, he gave quite an account of himself, getting two home runs and a double in three trips to the plate. Reid also homered.

A play by Pete Howison was the game's feature. Unable to get a ground ball going between pitcher and first, he shoved it on the ground to Millisor, who was then playing first.

One-Run Margins Feature Make-Up Softball Games

Hair's-breadth wins featured the two Sunday School make-up softball games played yesterday afternoon.

St. Mary No. 1 defeated Forest Lawn 7 to 6 and Greenwood United Brethren dropped Oakland Heights United Brethren 10 to 9 in eight innings.

In the first game St. Mary scored more runs than Forest Lawn on the same number of hits. Six errors by the Eastend Presbys aided them in doing it.

Greenwood and United Brethren each held the lead on several occasions through the game and it was necessary for Greenwood to make up a one run deficit in the bottom of the seventh. In the eighth Flesher homered to wind things up.

The city softball commission held a regular meeting at the Y last night and called a special meeting for Monday, June 16.

Tentative plans for a "soap-box derby," the first to be held in Marion, were made last night when committee members of the Lions Club and WMRN, joint sponsors of the event met, according to an announcement today.

The date has not been definitely set but the derby here will be held a week before the central Ohio meet in Columbus which will be sometime during the first of July.

The contest here will afford the winner a chance to compete in the Columbus contest. Winners in that meet will then be eligible to enter the international derby held annually at Akron, O.

Complete details giving the date, where entry blanks may be obtained, the place where it will be held, and the exact ages of boys who are eligible to enter will be announced within the next few days.

Rules for the competition state that all entries must build their own cars keeping within the amount of money allowed and following specifications for size and wright. Only wheels and steering apparatus may be purchased.

Boys who enter the derby may be sponsored by a merchant if desired or he may enter on his own.

Committee in charge of the derby include Dr. Dan Murphy, Jack Hanley, Owen Meddles, Robert Morrison, Hobart Lawson, Joseph Halberstein, Harry Hammond, William Selanders, Richard Denman, Richard Keller, Ronald Rish, Robert Minard, Edward Ruzzo and Donald Quaintance.

3 DEFENSES AGAINST ATOMIC BOMBS AIRED

By The Associated Press

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 5—Rear Admiral William S. Parsons, navy director of atomic defense, declared today there were three kinds of defense against an atomic bomb.

In an address prepared for delivery at a luncheon meeting of the 15th annual convention of the Edison Electric Institute, Parsons said:

▶"The first defense, which would be positive against a surprise attack, is political and would be accomplished by operations under the Baruch plan.

▶"The second form of defense is the ability to retaliate.

▶"The third defense is passive and consists of taking steps to minimize the effect of atomic attack. The Bikini tests come in the third category of passive defense. The technical reports of these tests are now clearly complete and have been acted on by the joint chiefs of staff evaluation board."

SENATOR SAYS BILL MERGES ARMY, NAVY

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 5 — Senator Robertson (R-Wyo) said today the pending Army-Navy unification bill actually would merge the two services.

"It's merger legislation, pure and simple," the Wyoming lawmaker told a reporter. "Let's not fool ourselves about that."

Robertson is a member of the senate armed services committee which in his absence yesterday approved the bill by a 12 to 0 vote. He said he would have voted against the measure.

It provides for unification of the military and naval forces under a secretary of national security. The bill says specifically that there shall be no merger, a provision upon which the Navy insisted.

But Robertson contended that "nine lines of the bill are merger lines and it doesn't take a lawyer to figure it out."

He referred to a section which creates a "national security organization (which) shall consist of the department of the army the department of the navy and the department of the air force * * * *"

Robertson's argument is that making the three departments part of an "organization" spells merger. He said he intends to fight the bill on that ground when it reaches the senate floor, probably next month.

TOP BRITONS TARGET OF MURDER-BY-MAIL

By The Associated Press

LONDON, June 5—A Scotland Yard spokesman said today scores of prominent Britons, including high government leaders, were targets of a murder-by-mail plot of "Jewish terrorists," apparently in reprisal for British Palestine policy.

Discovery of the letter bombs were disclosed yesterday, when Scotland Yard announced that envelopes containing explosive powder and tiny detonations had been sent to several leading figures in British life.

A Yard spokesman said three more such letter bombs were uncovered today. All recipients thus far had been warned or became suspicious in time and the letters were turned over to police.

The spokesman said the letter bombs were "very dangerous and sufficiently powerful to kill or permanently maim." He said all were mailed from Italy.

Britain's top detectives, headed by Leonard Burt, wartime anti-espionage agent, supervised a security campaign against the delivery of further letter bombs. Yard agents worked with sorters at key post offices. Customs men checked mail at all ports. Postmasters were warned to watch for the bombs. Government clerks were told to report unusual letters immediately, however slight the suspicion.

Bishop To Speak At Kenton Service

Special to The Star

KENTON, June 5 — Tuesday, June 10, will mark the dedication of the new addition of Antonio hospital. Solemn High Mass will be held in the Immaculate Conception church at 10 and a public reception will begin at 2 p. m. at the Elks hall.

Most Reverend Michael J. Ready, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese of Cloumbus, will be present for both the ceremonies and will speak briefly at the Mass and will address the assembled guests at the reception.

From humble beginnings of 50 years ago, Antonio has been growing gradually with the increasing need for hospital care. Begun by Rev. Fr. Anthony Siebenfoercher, pastor here for more than 30 years, and named for him, the hospital has grown through the service of the Sisters of Charity, contributions of local doctors and the interest and help of the citizens of the district.

The U. S. Constitution provides that congress controls the local government in Washington, D. C.

OHIO JUDGE BANS ALL CEMETERY PICKETING

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, June 5—A common pleas judge today banned all picketing by striking grave-diggers at Lake View cemetery, and said from the bench:

"The right of the union to picket is not a sacred right. It is a legal right. The obligation to bury the dead is more sacred than picketing."

The judge, Frank J. Merrick turned down an offer by Harry Crawford, attorney for the cemetery, to agree to limited picketing.

Oh, no," said the judge, "I won't sign an order of that kind. There will be no picketing at all."

Crawford told the court that since 63 members of the Arborists and Landscapers union (AFL) went on strike April 16, asking wage increases of 10 cents an hour, 116 bodies had been placed in chapel awaiting burial.

One burial has taken place during the strike. Last week a minister and his two brothers dug a grave for their 72-year-old mother.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS LAUD JUST-PASSED OHIO BILL

Group Says New Law Will Raise State's Standards

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, June 5—Signing of Ohio senate bill 86 by Gov. Thomas J. Herbert was lauded today by delegates to the annual convention of the Ohio Funeral Directors association as a "step in the right direction" toward raising standards of their profession.

"We feel that under this new setup we shall get a higher type of personnel and better trained men in all phases of our work, with resultant advantages to the public," said Walter M. Barnes, elected association president yesterday succeeding Garrett P. Trostel of New Carlisle.

Supplanting former requirements of a two-year apprenticeship in general practice, the new law requires two years of college study and one year of mortuary science as qualifications for state examinations for funeral directors or embalmers.

Other officers elected included Loren A. Vaughan of Akron, first vice president; J. A. Shaidnagle of Massillon, second vice president; Jerry G. Spears of Columbus, treasurer and L. S. Lebowitch of Cleveland, recording secretary.

LOVE'S PERILOUS PATH

By ADELE GARRISON

THERE was no shrinking from rebuke on Faith's part as she heard my question. Instead, she threw herself upon me tempestuously and hugged me tightly with her strong little arms.

"Oh boy!" she caroled, "Isn't that something super-tops? To see Cousin Mary! When, Mummy? When?"

'Gently, darling," I said kissing her. "I haven't promised you certainly, you know. If Cousin Mary isn't too tired, you shall see her before you go to school. But you mustn't tease."

"All right," she agreed. "And I suppose the best thing would be for me to get my shower and get dressed right away."

'Yes, I think that would be very wise." I said, trying to keep my face straight and she dropped her arms which had so tightly held me.

'I'll go right away," she said. "Did you say Aunt Katharine could come with me?'

Katharine, her face glowing, walked over to the child whom, I know, she loves as much as if Faith were her own and Faith's hand reached confidingly for hers.

'I'll love to come with you, little sweetheart!" Katharine said, and Faith began to skip beside her, chattering at the pace which only children can keep up.

Can't Braid It

"Do you know I can brush my own hair?" she was asking. "I give it a hundred strokes, every night and every morning. But I can't quite braid it yet."

"But I can," Katharine told her with a delighted laugh. 'I am sure I haven't forgotten how, unless you've changed your style of hairdressing."

Faith's giggle was ecstatic.

'No, the same old pigtails with the ribbons to match my dresses. Say, Aunt Katharine, do you know there's a gul—"

The bathroom door closed on her chatter and I found my heart aching again for the poignant sense of loss and frustration which was Katharine's lot and Jack's because they were childless. I resolved that during Katharine's stay in the hotel, while Jack was away on his secret mission for my father to South America, she should have every minute with Faith that was possible.

I settled myself in an easy chair near the bedroom door, and kept one eye on my wrist watch. Three minutes before the time I had set for Noel's departure, I knocked upon the bedroom door, pushed it ajar so that they could hear my voice, but could neither see me nor be seen, and called out. Three minutes more!'

Waited Three Minutes

I shut the door on the words to save my expostulation, waited the three minutes and an extra minute of grace before I rapped again. When I opened the door this time they evidently had bidden each other good-bye, for Noel was standing in the center of the room patently waiting for me.

'Do you think it's hurt her, seeing me?' he asked anxiously.

I looked at Mary appraisingly and though her eyes were too brilliant, her hands clasping each other, too tense, I felt warranted in reassuring him.

'No. On the contrary, I think it's done her good,' I said. 'I am sure Aunt Katharine will say that you may repeat the visit after dinner tonight, provided Mary doesn't get too tired during the day.'

'I won't," Mary said. 'I'll be all ready to hear all about your classes. Be sure to save up every amusing thing to tell me. You know the darndest things come up sometimes. They're simply rib-splitting!"

Heartening News

'A good laugh will be better for her than medicine,' I said sententiously, making no comment upon the heartening news that Noel was going about his work as usual. One problem would be off our hands.'

'Will you let yourself out, please?" I ask him. 'I want to play maid to Mary for a little."

'Of course,' Noel answered, then hesitated. "Will it bother you if I telephone about noon today to see how she is?"

'Not a bit," I answered him, "only, if there's no answer on the extension, don't be alarmed. We might be busy. But we won't be away from here, so if there isn't any answer, try again in five minutes."

"I'll do that," he said. "Good-bye."

But he turned at the door and waved his last farewell to his wife. "Good-bye, darling," he said, and went through the door, while I looked at Mary.

"You did a good job," I told her.
